Reflections

Monday, November 2, 2020

Welcome

Please welcome Paul Citarella as Chief Technical Officer at Monroe. He has been acting in a consulting capacity the last two months and is now officially an employee starting today, November 2. He is taking the lead in the enhancement of our online division and specifically the app.

Horror from Anne Hunter

Live Arts partnered with the C-ville Weekly to run a two-sentence horror story writing contest. The newspaper chose the winners, and we recruited volunteers to read the stories from the spookiness of their own homes. Here's the compilation. The last one is my favorite!

https://www.youtube.com/embed/l8BJSueMg1w

See you Tuesday,
Scott